

Operate your building more strategically.

Need help truly optimizing your building systems to save time and costs? Trane can help. Through a consultative relationship with Trane, you'll meet with your Account Manager at defined intervals throughout the year to learn what you need, set goals for your building, define KPIs and build a plan to get there. Intelligent Services combine Trane's knowledge of HVAC systems and energy, along with the expertise of our people to deliver and measure the outcomes that matter most.

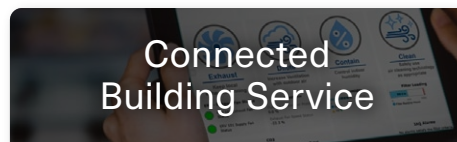

A consultative approach toward...

- ✓ Sustainability planning (decarbonization, energy reduction, regulatory compliance)
- ✓ Energy management (utility rebates and incentives, control strategies)
- ✓ CAPEX planning (deferred maintenance and replacement strategies)
- ✓ On-site generation analysis (solar, cogeneration, storage)
- ✓ System optimization (balancing comfort, energy and compliance)
Apply methods including advanced controls optimization, energy storage, chiller plant analysis, airside system optimization
- ✓ Energy rate analysis (review tariffs, identify improvement opportunities)
